THE HAMBURG AND COPENHAGEN APPLE MARKETS

About 9,600 boxes and 5,400 barrels of American apples were offered on the Hamburg auction Tuesday, October 28 and 15,000 boxes and 7,000 barrels on Thursday, October 30, according to a cable from Fred A. Motz, Fruit Specialist in Europe for the Foreign Service of the Department of Agriculture. The fruit was in good condition. Inquiry was good for American apples on both days. York Imperials predominated among the barreled offerings. Prices paid were about the same at both auctions.

Prices on the Copenhagen auction Tuesday, October 28, were on slightly lower levels than last week and considerably below the prices paid at this time last year. York Imperials showed better color this week than last.
